- Finally a New Home for the Parish Archival Collection!! Yes, it’s finally happened….we’re pleased to report that the collection of photos, documents, diaries and letters that tell the story of Our Lady of the Way Parish since its inception fifty plus years ago has actually found a permanent home as of last week. Two bays of a compactus purchased recently by the school have been allocated for parish use and so it was that the pictorial and written history of our parish finally found a permanent home. Once again we thank Nellina Sebastian, our archivist for the past twenty plus years, not only for her dedication in photographing all the important parish events during that time but for also collecting documents and items of historical importance to add to the collection. All this she has stored in her own home for nearly twenty five years and we, as a parish, are the richer. A big thankyou to the Principal of the school, Mr Kevin Burke, Deputy Principal Mr Tony Mizzi and of course, Fr Terry, for their support and encouragement - it seemed it would never happen but happily it did.

On another positive note, parishioners might be interested to know that copies of the publication ‘Along the way.....’ compiled by Nellina Sebastian and published in 2012 to coincide with the 50th Anniversary of the parish can now be found on the shelves of the following Victorian libraries:

- La Trobe University Library
- Loyola College Archival Collection
- Catholic Theological College (Mannix Library)
- Catholic Diocesan Centre Archives
- Darebin Library (Preston)
