Dear Parents & Families,

Our Year 5/6 Camp that was held at Phillip Island Adventure Resort last week was an outstanding success. The students had a great time on the giant swing, the flying fox, the circotron, as well as visiting the penguin parade, a fauna park, and an interactive Antarctic Adventure. It was an action packed 3 days! Thank you to Mrs Myers, Miss Nguyen, Mrs Pullen and all the students who made the camp so enjoyable. Some photos of the camp are included in today's newsletter.

Children can also wear their own sporting club uniform of any code. Weather permitting, we hope to hold a Staff v. Students soccer match after morning recess.

Church bulletins to make you chuckle: These sentences actually appeared in church bulletins or were announced in church services.

-Ladies, don’t forget the rummage sale. It’s a chance to get rid of those things not worth keeping around the house. Bring your husbands.

-Remember in prayer the many who are sick of our community. Smile at someone who is hard to love. Say “Hell” to someone who doesn’t care much about you.

And that “imperfect” place does more for us than simply providing the minimal standard of contrition needed for forgiveness. More importantly it accords rightful dignity to whom and to what we have hurt.

Reflecting on our inability to genuinely love our neighbour, Marilynne Robinson submits that, even in our failure to live up to what Jesus asks of us, if we are struggling honestly, there is some virtue. She argues this way: Freud said that we cannot love our neighbour as ourselves, and no doubt this is true. But since we accept the reality that lies behind the commandment, that our neighbour is as worthy of love as ourselves, then in our very attempt to act on Jesus’ demand we are acknowledging that our neighbour is worthy of love even if, at that this point in our lives, we are too weak to provide it.

And that’s the crucial point: In continuing to struggle, despite our failures, to live up to Jesus’ great commandment of love we acknowledge the dignity inherent in our enemies.
