Our Christmas Family Concert is fast approaching and we are pleased to have the expertise of Peter Kearney's involvement. Peter comes from Mittagong, on the southern highlands of NSW. Music has been his full time work since 1982 and 15 albums of his songs have been published.

Peter will work with the students and staff throughout the day of the concert, leading and presenting songs within a supportive and enjoyable environment.

On the day of the concert school dismissal is 3.30pm as usual and the students are required to return to school at 6.45pm and go directly to the school hall. Parents can proceed to the church and be seated.

Students may come dressed in 'Christmas' clothes or neat casual. As the concert is to be held in the Church, we ask that tinsel is preferably not be worn as it is very difficult to vacuum!

Looking forward to an enjoyable evening of singing and music.
