Dear Parents & Families,

We currently have some staff and just over 10% of our students in isolation, so I urge all families to remain vigilant in the weekly RAT testing of their children. We need your support to ensure that transmission is minimalised amongst our school community.

As we continue to try and minimise contact and transmission at school, our classroom teachers have prepared a short introductory video with some information around current school protocols, routines and activities which will be released later today. The video is designed to give you a snapshot into school life and how you can continue to support your child in their learning.

MANAGING LEARNING DURING ISOLATING AT HOME

A modified 5-day Learning from Home template is available for students isolating to voluntarily undertake if they feel up to completing some school work. The templates can be found under the Learning from Home tab which can be accessed from the front page of the school website as shown below.

PHRASE OF THE WEEK

Congratulations to everyone who found out that 'hang in there' means to remain persistent and determined in difficult circumstances.

Our phrase for this week is:

KINGSBURY OUT OF SCHOOL HOURS CARE

Recently at after school care, we made these awesome 'magic torch drawings', seen here in the photos. We know a magician never shares the secrets behind their tricks, but this was so cool that we're willing to tell you how we did it.

Firstly, we came up with different things to draw - scenes that you might need a torch for, like inside a tent, under the sea, a dark forest and under your bed. We each drew on top of a plastic pocket with permanent markers, before sliding a sheet of black paper inside. Using white paper, we cut out the shape of a torch shining a beam of light and decorated it to make it look realistic.

When we slid the 'torch' under the plastic pocket (but on top of the black paper) it revealed small sections of the drawing. By moving the torch around, we discovered hidden surprises like monsters and UFOs that the children had cleverly included in their pictures! Many kids enjoyed it so much that they made multiple creations. Sai was very creative and resourceful, and realised she could create a second image on the back of her first creation, saving plastic and paper.

It was a fun, interesting and impressive new activity that used resources that we already had lying around. Perhaps you'd like to try it at home too!

The Living Word

First Sunday of Lent, Year C

6 March 2022

First Reading Dt 26:4-10

The confession of faith of the elect.

Moses said to the people: 'The priest shall take the pannier from your hand and lay it before the altar of the Lord your God. Then, in the sight of the Lord your God, you must make this pronouncement:

"My father was a wandering Aramaean. He went down into Egypt to find refuge there, few in numbers; but there he became a nation, great, mighty, and strong. The Egyptians ill-treated us, they gave us no peace and inflicted harsh slavery on us. But we called on the Lord, the God of our fathers. The Lord heard our voice and saw our misery, our toil and our oppression; and the Lord brought us out of Egypt with mighty hand and outstretched arm, with great terror, and with signs and wonders. He brought us here and gave us this land, a land where milk and honey flow. Here then I bring the first-fruits of the produce of the soil that you, Lord, have given me." You must then lay them before the Lord your God, and bow down in the sight of the Lord your God.'

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 90:1-2. 10-15. R. v.15

(R.) Be with me, Lord, when I am in trouble.

1. He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High and abides in the shade of the Almighty says to the Lord: 'My refuge, my stronghold, my God in whom I trust!' (R.)
2. Upon you no evil shall fall, no plague approach where you dwell. For you has he commanded his angels, to keep you in all your ways. (R.)
3. They shall bear you upon their hands lest you strike your foot against a stone. On the lion and the viper you will tread and trample the young lion and the dragon. (R.)
4. His love he set on me, so I will rescue him; protect him for he knows my name. When he calls I shall answer: 'I am with you.' I will save him in distress and give him glory. (R.)

Second Reading Rom 10:8-13

The confession of faith of the believers in Christ.

Scripture says: The word, that is the faith we proclaim, is very near to you, it is on your lips and in your heart. If your lips confess that Jesus is Lord and if you believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, then you will be saved. By believing from the heart you are made righteous; by confessing with your lips you are saved. When scripture says: those who believe in him will have no cause for shame, it makes no distinction between Jew and Greek: all belong to the same Lord who is rich enough, however many ask for his help, for everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.

Gospel Acclamation Mt 4:4

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

No one lives on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

Gospel Lk 4:1-13

Filled with the Holy Spirit, Jesus was led by the Spirit through the wilderness where he was tempted.

Filled with the Holy Spirit, Jesus left the Jordan and was led by the Spirit through the wilderness, being tempted there by the devil for forty days. During that time he ate nothing and at the end he was hungry. Then the devil said to him, 'If you are the Son of God, tell this stone to turn into a loaf.' But Jesus replied, 'Scripture says: Man does not live on bread alone.'

Then leading him to a height, the devil showed him in a moment of time all the kingdoms of the world and said to him, 'I will give you all this power and the glory of these kingdoms, for it has been committed to me and I give it to anyone I choose. Worship me, then, and it shall all be yours.' But Jesus answered him, 'Scripture says:

You must worship the Lord your God, and serve him alone.'

Then he led him to Jerusalem and made him stand on the parapet of the Temple. 'If you are the Son of God', he said to him 'throw yourself down from here, for scripture says:

He will put his angels in charge of you to guard you,

and again:

They will hold you up on their hands in case you hurt your foot against a stone.'

But Jesus answered him, 'It has been said:

You must not put the Lord your God to the test.'

Having exhausted all these ways of tempting him, the devil left him, to return at the appointed time.

Reflection by Fr Michael Tate

After his baptism Jesus was driven by the Holy Spirit into the wilderness where the devil put him to the test. Jesus was offered three shortcuts to his living in harmony with the will of his Heavenly Father.

First, when he was hungry there would be bread out of stones.

Second, when he wanted to change the world he could have absolute political power.

Third, when he needed to take risks, angels would keep him safe.

Our baptism does not insulate us from the same threefold pattern of temptation. Do you find yourself saying:

I want the whole world to change to satisfy me, or

I want to exercise power over others, or

I want to take stupid risks and come out unharmed, or all three!

What must we do when such temptations assail us?

Realise that such temptations are much less powerful than they seem – the last gasp of the vanquished devil. Imitate Jesus in going to the Scriptures, preferably the Gospels, in order to have the words to hurl back at the devil as you are tested.

We could pause to make a Lenten resolution to read a Gospel, and to do so confident of our Baptismal identity as beloved daughters and sons of God.

St John of God was originally a soldier who fought for Spain against the French and the Turks. Around the age of forty, he repented his former life and converted to a life of service to God. In 1539 he bought a house and gave shelter and care to the sick and needy. After his death, John's followers formed a Religious Order of hospitalers, the Brothers of St John of God. He is the patron saint of nurses, hospitals and the sick.

Help Jesus find the right path through the desert and into Galilee. Be wary of temptation along the way!

The devil appeared to Jesus and offered him the power to rule all the nations of the earth, if he worshiped him instead of God. Select the right path for Jesus to take.

Worship the devil

Run Away

Worship God and serve him
