Dear Parents & Families,

Thank you to all the 'dads' who attended our Father's Day Breakfast last Friday morning. We had a fantastic turnout for the breakfast and it was great to see so many 'dads' make the time to come along to be there with their children and join in some fun.

Many thanks also to our P & F for organising and running the Father's Day Stall on Thursday.

DISTRICT SPORTS TOURNAMENTS

Congratulations to our Year 5/6 Boys and Girls Indoor Soccer teams on their performances in the district tournament last Friday. Both teams showed outstanding teamwork and sportsmanship throughout the day, with our girls finishing 2nd and our boys finishing 1st. Well done to all players!

The rescheduled date for the Year 3/4 Basketball Tournament is this Friday, September 9. Permission forms and details were sent home with the selected students today. Parents are welcome to attend and support the teams.

NAPLAN

Naplan reports arrived at schools late on Friday afternoon. These will be unboxed and the individual student reports will be sent home with the students tomorrow.

As a school, we have continued to perform at a very high level. Overall, OLW continues to perform well above the State & National average in all areas. In fact, 2022 saw our students rise to another new level by once again achieving the school's best performance in Naplan since its inception in 2008!

The Wisdom of the Church: Fatherhood

*Every family needs a father - a father who shares in his family's joy and pain, hands down wisdom to his children and offers them firm guidance and love." - Pope Francis

*In revealing and in reliving on earth the very fatherhood of God, a man is called upon to ensure the harmonious and united development of all the members of the family. - Pope St John Paul II

*To the good father and brave man, good and bad luck are like his right and left hand. He uses both. - St Catherine of Siena

*A father who is a man of prayer is capable of everything. - St Vincent de Paul

*For a father's love to be real, it must cost-it must hurt-it must empty a man of self. - St Teresa of Calcutta

The Living Word

Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year C

4 September 2022

First Reading Wis 9:13-18

Who can comprehend the will of God?

What man can know the intentions of God?
Who can divine the will of the Lord?
The reasonings of mortals are unsure
and our intentions unstable;
for a perishable body presses down the soul,
and this tent of clay weighs down the teeming mind.
It is hard enough for us to work out what is
on earth,
laborious to know what lies within our reach;
who, then, can discover what is in the heavens?
As for your intention, who could have learnt
it, had you not granted Wisdom and sent your holy spirit from above?
Thus have the paths of those on earth
been straightened and men been taught what pleases you,
and saved, by Wisdom.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 89:3-6. 12-14. 17. R. v.1

(R.) In every age, O Lord, you have been our refuge.

1. You turn men back into dust
and say: 'Go back, sons of men.'
To your eyes a thousand years
are like yesterday, come and gone,
no more than a watch in the night. (R.)
2. You sweep men away like a dream, like grass which springs up in the morning.
In the morning it springs up and flowers:
by evening it withers and fades. (R.)
3. Make us know the shortness of our life that we may gain wisdom of heart.
Lord, relent! Is your anger for ever?
Show pity to your servants. (R.)
4. In the morning, fill us with your love;
we shall exult and rejoice all our days.
Let the favour of the Lord be upon us:
give success to the work of our hands. (R.)

Second Reading Phlm 9-10, 12-17

Receive him, not as a slave anymore, but as a very dear brother.

This is Paul writing, an old man now and, what is more, still a prisoner of Christ Jesus. I am appealing to you for a child of mine, whose father I became while wearing these chains: I mean Onesimus. I am sending him back to you, and with him – I could say – a part of my own self. I should have liked to keep him with me; he could have been a substitute for you, to help me while I am in the chains that the Good News has brought me. However, I did not want to do anything without your consent; it would have been forcing your act of kindness, which should be spontaneous. I know you have been deprived of Onesimus for a time, but it was only so that you could have him back for ever, not as a slave any more, but something much better than a slave, a dear brother; especially dear to me, but how much more to you, as a blood-brother as well as a brother in the Lord. So if all that we have in common means anything to you, welcome him as you would me.

Gospel Acclamation Ps 118:135

Alleluia, alleluia!

*Let your face shine on your servant,
and teach me your laws.*

Alleluia!

Gospel Lk 14:25-33

All who do not renounce their possessions cannot be my disciples.

Great crowds accompanied Jesus on his way and he turned and spoke to them. 'If any man comes to me without hating his father, mother, wife, children, brothers, sisters, yes and his own life too, he cannot be my disciple. Anyone who does not carry his cross and come after me cannot be my disciple.

'And indeed, which of you here, intending to build a tower, would not first sit down and work out the cost to see if he had enough to complete it? Otherwise, if he laid the foundation and then found himself unable to finish the work, the onlookers would all start making fun of him and saying, "Here is a man who started to build and was unable to finish." Or again, what king marching to war against another king would not first sit down and consider whether with ten thousand men he could stand up to the other who advanced against him with twenty thousand? If not, then while the other king was still a long way off, he would send envoys to sue for peace. So in the same way, none of you can be my disciple unless he gives up all his possessions.'

Reflection by Nick Brodie

A common thread that runs through this week's readings is the passing of time. We are told that God's intentions transcend and outlast ours, that our lives are short and our bodies dust. But none of this is cause for worry so much as a reality check, a reminder that we are all Created Beings living within a wider Creation. An elderly St Paul speaks of deprivation 'for a time' before turning his attention to human relationships and eternal hopes, reminding us that the Resurrection for which we hope is Creation renewed in Communion in Christ.

While we are celebrating the Season of Creation, such Scripture therefore also reminds us that Creation's 'season' is eternal. This helps us make sense of this week's seemingly troubling Gospel passage where Jesus speaks of 'hating' loved ones, even 'hating' our own lives, and His insistence that we give up all our possessions. Jesus' point is that our relationships with people and things should be part of a bigger, longer picture, and that our approach towards Creation should not be possessive. Your mother is God's Creation. Your life is God's. Your possessions really belong to God. Which then begs the question: Do you approach Creation unselfishly?

The Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary is a feast that commemorates the birthday of Jesus' mother. Even though Mary's birth is not recorded in the scriptures, it is mentioned in the Apocryphal writings from the second century, the Protoevangelium of James and is even mentioned in Islamic scripture. Her parents are named as Saint Anne and Saint Joachim and tradition places Mary's birthplace in Jerusalem. The feast has been celebrated since the fifth century – on September 8 in the Roman Calendar.
