Dear Parents & Families,

Thank you to everyone who joined in our Book Week parade last Friday. There were some amazing costumes and an exciting buzz around the school, especially when everyone arrived in the morning.

DISTRICT SPORTS TOURNAMENTS

Congratulations to our Year 3/4 Boys and Girls Indoor Soccer teams who were both successful in winning their tournament last Friday. Both teams went through the competition undefeated and showed outstanding teamwork and sportsmanship throughout the day. The Tournaments for Indoor Soccer continue this Friday, September 2, for Year 5/6. The rescheduled date for the Year 3/4 Basketball Tournament is Friday September 9. Parents are welcome to attend and support the teams.

P & F PASTA FUNDRAISER

Our Pasta fundraiser concludes tomorrow so I would encourage anyone who is considering supporting this activity, but has not yet placed an order to do so as soon as possible, so that we can take advantage of the donation offered back to the school.

SCHOOL ADVISORY COUNCIL MEETING

Our next School Advisory Council Meeting is this Wednesday at 5.30pm. Minutes and agenda have been distributed through our school app.

FATHER'S DAY STALL & BREAKFAST

All dads are warmly invited to our Father's Day Breakfast to be held this Friday, September 2, commencing at 8.00am. Invitations were sent out last week.

Our P & F will also be holding a Father's Day Stall on Thursday September 1 giving students the opportunity to buy a gift for their dad or granddad. Gifts range from $2.00 - $10.00.

DISVISION ATHLETICS

The Division Athletics will be held on Thursday, September 8, at Meadowglen Athletics Stadium. Permission forms for students who have made it through to this level of competition will go out later this week.

TERM 3 & 4 SCHOOL CLOSURE DAYS

Our next Closure Day for Term 3 will be held on Monday September 12. We will be running with a hybrid model for interviews being onsite from 8.30am – 1.00pm and online from 2.00pm – 7.00pm. Booking details went out last week and are also included in this week's newsletter.

Term 4 will have two Closure Days. The first Closure Day will be Monday October 3, the first day of Term 4. On this day the staff will be completing First Aid Training incorporating CPR, Anaphylaxis and Asthma Training. The second day will be Monday October 31, the day before the Melbourne Cup Public Holiday. On this day staff will be working on our Assessment & Reporting Documentation and our PLP's for NCCD students. OSH Care will offer a program on these days if sufficient families are interested in accessing the program.

TEAM COLOURS & HOT LUNCH DAY

The SRC is organising our Wear Your Team Colours Day for Thursday, September 15. We will be asking all children to bring a gold coin donation. Money raised will be used to support Aussie Kids living with cancer.

Students will be able to come to school wearing their favourite sports team colours from any code (e.g. Collingwood-black and white, Melbourne City – blue and white, etc). Children can also wear their own sporting club uniform. The P & F are organising a Hot Lunch Day as part of the celebration. Ordering details will be sent home next week.

Enjoy the week!

Kevin Burke

PHRASE OF THE WEEK

Congratulations to everyone who found out that 'two peas in a pod' means 'identical in looks or behaviour'.

Our phrase for this week is:
'having bigger fish to fry'

Find out it's meaning and see if you can add this phrase to your vocabulary over the next week.

Book School Interviews Online

Dear Parents,

Parent-Teacher interviews will be held on Monday September 12. We will be using a dual mode for the interviews, with Interviews will be held ONSITE from 8.30am until 1.00pm and ONLINE from 2.00pm until 7.00pm. All bookings will receive a Google Meet Link in their booking confirmation email, but please ignore the link if you are attending the onsite session in the morning.

Bookings can be made through the School Interviews tab on the SkoolBag main page, or you can go to www.schoolinterviews.com.au to enter the School Event code shown below.

Go to www.schoolinterviews.com.au

<http://www.schoolinterviews.com.au/code>

Enter THIS school event code.
Then follow the 3 simple steps.

Before you click finish, make sure that you select 'email booking information' so that the link will be emailed to you automatically - check your junk mail folder if you do not receive your email immediately.

You can return to www.schoolinterviews.com.au at any time, and change your interviews - until bookings close.

Interviews are strictly 15 minutes and spaces are limited on each day. If a teacher feels that the interview requires further discussion, they will make alternative arrangements with you.

Parents can change their interview bookings any time prior to the closing date by re-visiting the www.schoolinterviews.com.au website, and using the event code. Remember to use the same name and email address, you used when you made your original booking.

It is important that the student is present at the interview and also involved in the discussion. However, we are aware that some parents may not be at home at the time of the online interview, so having their child with them may not always be possible. If you are in this situation, please make sure that you speak with your child when you are at home and celebrate their learning and successes.

Message from Father Terry

Hi Everyone.

Thank you for your prayers, support, cards and love. The doctors completed a four-hour complex operation dealing with my liver and kidneys. I have a scar the size of my thumb about a foot long. Everything is going well, now it's a matter of spending a week in hospital and hopefully I'm out of hospital by the time you're reading this. My next step is to go to Justin Villa in North Balwyn, and I expect to be there two or three weeks, and then head to George Maher House in Clifton Hill. That will be my permanent place of residence. I'm down on the bottom floor in room three, so I'm not having to climb stairs as I'm getting older, although they do have a lift in the house.

I know the Priests there at George Maher House, so it will be great to have friends amongst the priesthood. I will miss Kingsbury so much. My 25 years here with you have been very formative for me and I hope that you've learnt something from me. One of the great statements that was made to me as I was winding down was about homilies and theology. Someone said that: "no names, no factual. We don't always agree with you, but we love you." There, I'm very grateful that I'll carry that to my grave. You can put it on my grave site if you wish!

I will be back on November 2, which is the Sunday, for the 10.00am Mass, as a thank and farewell you to you all. But that doesn't mean the end. We just take different tracks and end up in the same place, which is a bit of fun on the way. And thanks for your many jokes.

May God bless and hold you and your family in His love.

Fr Terry.

The Living Word

Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year C

28 August 2022

First Reading Sir 3:17-20, 28-29

Humble yourself and you will find favour with the Lord.

My son, be gentle in carrying out your business,
and you will be better loved than a lavish giver.
The greater you are, the more you should behave humbly,
and then you will find favour with the Lord;
for great though the power of the Lord is, he accepts the homage of the humble.
There is no cure for the proud man's malady, since an evil growth has taken root in him.
The heart of a sensible man will reflect on parables,
an attentive ear is the sage's dream.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 67:4-7. 10-11. R. v.11

(R.) God, in your goodness, you have made a home for the poor.

1. The just shall rejoice at the presence of God,
they shall exult and dance for joy.
O sing to the Lord, make music to his name;
rejoice in the Lord, exult at his presence. (R.)
2. Father of the orphan, defender of the widow, such is God in his holy place.
God gives the lonely a home to live in;
he leads the prisoners forth into freedom. (R.)
3. You poured down, O God, a generous rain:
when your people were starved you gave them new life.
It was there that your people found a home,
prepared in your goodness, O God, for the poor. (R.)

Second Reading Heb 12:18-19, 22-24

You have to come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God.

What you have come to is nothing known to the senses: not a blazing fire, or a gloom turning to total darkness, or a storm; or trumpeting thunder or the great voice speaking which made everyone that heard it beg that no more should be said to them. But what you have come to is Mount Zion and the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem where the millions of angels have gathered for the festival, with the whole Church in which everyone is a 'first-born son' and a citizen of heaven. You have come to God himself, the supreme Judge, and been placed with spirits of the saints who have been made perfect; and to Jesus, the mediator who brings a new covenant.

Gospel Acclamation Mt 11:29

Alleluia, alleluia!

Take my yoke upon you;

learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart.

Alleluia!

Gospel Lk 14:1, 7-14

All who exalt themselves shall be humbled and all who humble themselves shall be exalted.

On a sabbath day Jesus had gone for a meal to the house of one of the leading Pharisees; and they watched him closely. He then told the guests a parable, because he had noticed how they picked the places of honour. He said this, 'When someone invites you to a wedding feast, do not take your seat in the place of honour. A more distinguished person than you may have been invited, and the person who invited you both may come and say, "Give up your place to this man." And then, to your embarrassment, you would have to go and take the lowest place. No; when you are a guest, make your way to the lowest place and sit there, so that, when your host comes, he may say, "My friend, move up higher." In that way, everyone with you at the table will see you honoured. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and the man who humbles himself will be exalted.'

Then he said to his host, 'When you give a lunch or a dinner, do not ask your friends, brothers, relations or rich neighbours, for fear they repay your courtesy by inviting you in return. No; when you have a party, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; that they cannot pay you back means that you are fortunate, because repayment will be made to you when the virtuous rise again.'

Reflection by Fr Michael Tate

Hearing Our Lord's command: 'Invite the poor, the crippled, to the feast,' how do we respond as citizens of a nation which, in comparative global terms, is having a great feast? Jesus demands that we go well beyond an immigration policy which favours skilled and entrepreneurial people. They more than 'repay our courtesy' in terms of economic activity and social stability.

The majority of the poor and the crippled live in the subsistence villages, the refugee camps, and the squalor of the megacities of the Third World.

Heaven embossed invitations must be extended to such as those so that they may join in our national feast. Only then can we become the sort of people who, in the great Feast of Heaven, can join with those poor who are certain to be there.

We could pause for a moment to pray to put today's Gospel into effect so that we might hear Our Lord: 'Friend, join in the Feast. Be close to me.'

Gregory the Great was born in Rome in 540 AD. He used his own money to establish monasteries in Rome and Sicily, and eventually became a monk himself at the age of 35. In 590 AD, he became the first monk to be elected pope and the first pope to take the name Gregory. He was known as a great statesman and is accounted the fourth of the great Latin doctors of the church. His influence on church music gave rise to plainsong becoming known as Gregorian chant. Gregory the Great was the father of the medieval papacy, and he was instrumental in helping Western Europe rise from the ashes of the fallen Roman Empire. He referred to himself as "the servant of the servants of God", a term which the popes have used ever since.
