Dear Parents & Families,

Last Thursday we celebrated 100 Days of Prep with our Prep students. It was great to see them all dressed up and ready to celebrate the day. Thank you to all the parents who went to the extra trouble to have a costume organised for the day and for all the treats that were sent in to celebrate this wonderful occasion!

TERM 3 & 4 SCHOOL CLOSURE DAYS

OLW will be holding two Closure Days in Term 3. The first Closure Day will be next Monday August 15 which will be a professional practice day focussing on improving educational outcomes for students and Mandatory Reporting compliance requirements. The MACS Executive Leadership Team have approved this additional pupil free day for all MACS Primary Schools in Term 3 as many schools struggle to employ CRT's to cover staff illness and attendance at Professional Development activities.

The second Closure Day for Term 3 will be held on Monday September 12. This day is the last Monday of Term 3 and is for Parent-Teacher Interviews. Further details about arrangements and booking an interview time will be released closer to the date.

Term 4 will also have two Closure Days. The first Closure Day will be Monday October 3, the first day of Term 4. On this day the staff will be completing First Aid Training including updating CPR, Anaphylaxis and Asthma Training credentials. The second day will be Monday October 31, the day before the Melbourne Cup Public Holiday. On this day staff will be working on our Assessment & Reporting Documentation and our PLP's for NCCD students.

OSH Care will offer a program on these days if sufficient families are interested in accessing the program.

DIVISION NETBALL CHAMPIONSHIPS

Our Netball A Team will be competing in the State Division Championships at Diamond Creek tomorrow. They will be playing two matches in this next level of competition and we wish our team the best of luck!

DISTRICT INDOOR TOURNAMENTS

Lunchtime Training for the Basketball Tournaments will continue again throughout this week so our selected players may wear or bring their runners to school daily. Although the District Basketball Tournament for Year 3/4 was postponed last Friday, we have been assured that the Year 5/6 Tournament will go ahead this Friday. The new date for the Year 3/4 Tournament is Friday September 9. Parents are welcome to attend and support the teams.

KINGSBURY OUT OF SCHOOL HOURS CARE

One highlight from the past fortnight at OSHC has been our human body tracing activity! On Monday, Sophie and Ryan volunteered to lie down on long pieces of butcher's paper and let us trace around them. From there, teams worked together to colour and decorate the tracings however they liked. While we spoke about possibly including pictures of our organs (which we've learned about in our human body play area), in the end one team used paper scraps to create colourful clothing, and the other team split the body into three parts for each team member to fill in however they liked. Although we joked about the tracings not being exactly accurate, we loved the collaboration and creativity we saw from all the participants.

We were also very impressed during our recent skipping competition, where we saw kids solo skipping continuously, as well as trying doubles and even three at a time skipping with the long rope. Lincoln L, Betty and Kara demonstrated excellent skills, while Sienna and Shaunak were very willing and helpful at holding and swinging each end of the rope. Well done everyone!

Other activities we've enjoyed this fortnight include making pipe cleaner figurines and mini pizzas (as shown in the photos), and drawing all sorts of funny characters including Mr. Noodle (Charlize's creation) and our "wall of aliens" (as suggested by Maxwell).

The Living Word

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year C

7 August 2022

First Reading Wis 18:6-9

Just as you struck our enemies, you made us glorious by calling us to you.

That night had been foretold to our ancestors, so that, once they saw what kind of oaths they had put their trust in, they would joyfully take courage. This was the expectation of your people, the saving of the virtuous and the ruin of their enemies; for by the same act with which you took vengeance on our foes you made us glorious by calling us to you. The devout children of worthy men offered sacrifice in secret and this divine pact they struck with one accord: that the saints would share the same blessings and dangers alike; and forthwith they had begun to chant the hymns of the fathers.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 32:1. 12. 18-20. 22. R. v.12

(R.) Happy the people the Lord has chosen to be his own.

1. Ring out your joy to the Lord, O you just; for praise is fitting for loyal hearts. They are happy, whose God is the Lord, the people he has chosen as his own. (R.)
2. The Lord looks on those who revere him, on those who hope in his love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine. (R.)
3. Our soul is waiting for the Lord. The Lord is our help and our shield. May your love be upon us, O Lord, as we place all our hope in you. (R.)

Second Reading Heb 11:1-2, 8-19 (or shorter form Heb 11:1-2, 8-12)

We will look for the city designed and built by God.

Only faith can guarantee the blessings that we hope for, or prove the existence of the realities that at present remain unseen. It was for faith that our ancestors were commended.

It was by faith that Abraham obeyed the call to set out for a country that was the inheritance given to him and his descendants, and that he set out without knowing where he was going. By faith he arrived, as a foreigner, in the Promised Land, and lived there as if in a strange country, with Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. They lived there in tents while he looked forward to a city founded, designed and built by God.

It was equally by faith that Sarah, in spite of being past the age, was made able to conceive, because she believed that he who had made the promise would be faithful to it. Because of this, there came from one man, and one who was already as good as dead himself, more descendants than could be counted, as many as the stars of heaven or the grains of sand on the seashore.

All these died in faith, before receiving any of the things that had been promised, but they saw them in the far distance and welcomed them, recognising that they were only strangers and nomads on earth.

People who use such terms about themselves make it quite plain that they are in search of their real homeland. They can hardly have meant the country they came from, since they had the opportunity to go back to it, but in fact they were longing for a better homeland, their heavenly homeland. That is why God is not ashamed to be called their God, since he has founded the city for them.

It was by faith that Abraham, when put to the test, offered up Isaac. He offered to sacrifice his only son even though the promises had been made to him and he had been told: It is through Isaac that your name will be carried on. He was confident that God had the power even to raise the dead, and so, figuratively speaking, he was given back Isaac from the dead.

Gospel Acclamation Mt 24:42. 44

Alleluia, alleluia!

Be watchful and ready:

You know not when the Son of Man is coming. Alleluia!

Gospel Lk 12:32-48 (or shorter form Lk 12:35-40)

See that you are prepared.

Jesus said to his disciples: There is no need to be afraid, little flock, for it has pleased your Father to give you the kingdom.

'Sell your possessions and give alms. Get yourselves purses that do not wear out, treasure that will not fail you, in heaven where no thief can reach it and no moth destroy it. For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.'

'See that you are dressed for action and have your lamps lit. Be like men waiting for their master to return from the wedding feast, ready to open the door as soon as he comes and knocks. Happy those servants whom the master finds awake when he comes. I tell you solemnly, he will put on an apron, sit them down at table and wait on them. It may be in the second watch he comes, or in the third, but happy those servants if he finds them ready. You may be quite sure of this, that if the householder had known at what hour the burglar would come, he would not have let anyone break through the wall of his house. You too must stand ready, because the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect.'

Peter said, 'Lord, do you mean this parable for us, or for everyone?' The Lord replied, 'What sort of steward, then, is faithful and wise enough for the master to place him over his household to give them their allowance of food at the proper time? Happy that servant if his master's arrival finds him at this employment. I tell you truly, he will place him over everything he owns. But as for the servant who says to himself, "My master is taking his time coming", and sets about beating the menservants and the maids, and eating and drinking and getting drunk, his master will come on a day he does not expect and at an hour he does not know. The master will cut him off and send him to the same fate as the unfaithful.'

The servant who knows what his master wants, but has not even started to carry out those wishes, will receive very many strokes of the lash. The one who did not know, but deserves to be beaten for what he has done, will receive fewer strokes. When a man has had a great deal given him, a great deal will be demanded of him; when a man has had a great deal given him on trust, even more will be expected of him.'

Reflection by Fr Michael Tate

Jesus lived in a remote part of the Roman Empire where the majority eked out an existence. One of the few ways in which redistribution of wealth could occur was by voluntarily giving to the poor. So Jesus instructs his followers: 'Sell your possessions and give generously to those in need.'

We live in a very different society: 'The Commonwealth of Australia.' 'Commonwealth' indicates that the wealth of this nation, its people and resources, are meant to be directed to the common good.

So, we respond to Our Lord's command in ways very different to what was possible in his day.

We have a compulsory taxation system which forces us to give up some of our possessions, some of our wealth to the common-wealth. Taxation and social justice policies help fulfil Our Lord's command to create a society more humane than anything remotely possible under the Roman Empire. And that would please Our Lord. Why?

In part because those in need are helped. But, perhaps in greater part, because it makes us larger hearted people. We have to arrive at the moment of death with a heart so capacious that it can include the billions of people we hope inhabit heavenly existence.

We might pause for a moment to pray for our hearts to be expanded by our contribution to the common-wealth of all peoples throughout the world.

St Clare of Assisi was born in Italy in 1194 AD to a wealthy noble family. As a child she was devoted to prayer and at the age of eighteen she heard St Francis of Assisi preach and she was inspired to follow his example, despite the protestations of her family. After living a life of strict poverty with the Benedictine nuns, she eventually led a new order known as the "Poor Ladies of San Damiano". For a time the order was directed by St Francis himself, and Clare cared for him in his final days. In 1224 the Prussian King, Frederick II led an army to take the town of Assisi. It is believed that Clare faced the army carrying only the Blessed Sacrament, and that suddenly the army was overcome with fear and fled. Ten years after her death in 1253, her order became known as the Order of St Clare. In 1958 Pope Pius XII named Clare as the patron saint of television based on the story that when she was sick and unable to attend mass she could reportedly see and hear it on the wall of her room.
