Dear Parents & Families,

Our Year 5/6 Camp takes place this Monday – Wednesday at Forest Edge CYC at Neerim East. We are hoping for good weather so that we can enjoy some of the outdoor activities such as flying fox, ropes courses, archery, river sledding and raft building. It promises to be a great time for everyone!

2023 ORGANISATIONL STRUCTURES

As we currently finalizing our classes for 2023, it is timely to remind parents that the staff are very aware of the needs of all students, and that classes are constructed to develop the optimum learning environment for all students at their level taking into account gender balance and academic, behavioural, social/emotional and special learning needs. Therefore, we do not take requests for particular teachers from parents as this goes against our belief of the value and importance of each individual child and may unfairly imbalance a class.

Our only change in staffing for 2023 is for our Futurescapes Program. Nick Agathos, who had taken over the program in Term 2 whilst Mrs Lamont was on Maternity Leave, has accepted a position in private enterprise. We have thoroughly enjoyed having Nick back on staff this year, and wish him well in his future endeavours. Our structure for our Classes and Specialist Programs will be:

Prep – Jessica Penzo

Year 1/2M – Lisa Micomonaco

Year 1/2S – Shirley Schroeder

Year 3/4K – Melanie Kent

Year 3/4L – Catherine Laycock

Year 5/6W – Hannah Walsh

Year 5/6EJ – Jacqui Driscoll (0.4) & Erin Mithen (0.6)

Intervention Year 3 – 6 – Deb Myers

2023 FAMILY & LEVY FEES

The School Fee for 2023 will be $1800 per family and the levy will be $400 per child. ($50.00 will be refunded if families attend one working bee during the year). The annual rise in fees is kept to a minimum and in line with, or just below CPI, to ensure that OLW remains accessible for all families.

Please remember that if you ever have any concerns over the payment of school fees, you should contact the office so that we can assist you with managing your situation.

Student Book Orders will be managed by the school again this year. Families will not be required to order any classroom books or equipment for 2023. All books and requirements for your child will be billed to your 2023 school fee account.

However, there will be some optional items that you will be able to provide or purchase such as pencils/ textas etc. This will enable families to carry over some items from this year rather than purchase more of the same things. A list of goods required to be brought from home will be sent home once class arrangements have been finalised in December.

The day will commence at 10.00am and finish approximately at 3.00pm and families are most welcome to join us throughout the day. We will be setting up events and equipment from 9.00am – 10.00am, so if any parents are available to assist with setting up the marquees etc. from 9.00am, we would be very grateful for your assistance. ## Second Sunday of Advent – 03 and 04 December 2022

The Advent of Hope.

I grew up with parents whose main behaviour management tool was the sentence: 'If you can't say something nice, don't say anything at all.' It didn't always work – but it did often prevent the mean words that tend to slip out on the home front. And it schooled in us, I suspect, a care in how we used our words with one another. A gentling of the spirit, perhaps.

I've been reminded of this phrase over the last few weeks listening to the way our politicians locally and internationally relate to each other. There's a sharpness. They are necessarily negative about their opponents and their policies, of course, but in some cases, there is also a deep antipathy that is hard to listen to. It's a different sort of way – one that uses words as weapon and works out of a hermeneutic of mistrust. And I can't help but observe that if we are unable to be at peace with another and be a voice of hope, there will never be real peace in the world.

Some of our leaders know that fear and uncertainty are the touch points for many. And we can choose to build upon the fear, sadness and uncertainty of another or we can inspire a world that is based on hope. I think this is one of the great reminders that Advent offers us.

It is always a challenge when we disagree with another. We want to convert the other to our point of view – because we are right! These are the 'yes, but' conversations. Developing a place for hope requires 'yes and' conversations. This is the world where we acknowledge the point of view of the other and we build on it rather than try to tear it down. But this is not an easy way to work and live!

In the prayer life of the Church, we have reached the season of Advent. It is a season that provokes in us a spirit of hope. It is a time that prompts us to beginnings. It is an opportunity to keep the season as a holy space before Christmas. It is an invitation to a time of preparation, reflection, and renewal. It is also a time where the past, present and future collide. People of faith commemorate the birth of the much longed for saviour in Bethlehem (past), prepare for one who is to come (future), and celebrate the one who is present in life today.

And throughout the Advent period the readings will encourage us along the way. We will once again reach back through the ages and rediscover the hopes and longings of the ancient people of God for someone to bring peace. The gospels will offer their reminders to be watchful and provide the beautiful details about the man John who – even in prison – saw something in Jesus. The one who is to come. And then, the final reveal on the fourth Sunday of Advent, that Mary, this young, faith filled woman, will conceive and give birth to the Emmanuel, God-with-us.

These stories, that we know so well, remind us again that in this world of faith it is possible to live as a 'yes and' people. It is possible to believe in the unimaginable. This is the people who walk the way of hope, of peace, and of kindness. But how do we do this? Pope Francis writes:

'Do we want to be heard? Let us listen. Do we need encouragement? Let us encourage. Do we want someone to care for us? Let us care for those who are alone. Do we need hope for tomorrow? Let us give hope today.' (A Gift of Joy and Hope, p. 39)

It is as simple and as difficult as that! May we in our own ways continue to build this world where hope, peace, joy and love are the way. May we be gentle with each other. May the hurts of the year, that inevitably rise, be soothed by the knowledge that the world is graced and shot through with hope. That we are not alone.

And may our hearts be ready once again to celebrate with great joy that Jesus, the Emmanuel, is God-with-us.

The Living Word

Second Sunday of Advent, Year A

4 December 2022

First Reading Is 11:1-10

He judges the poor with justice.

A shoot springs from the stock of Jesse,
a scion thrusts from his roots:
on him the spirit of the Lord rests,
a spirit of wisdom and insight,
a spirit of counsel and power,
a spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord.
(The fear of the Lord is his breath.)
He does not judge by appearances,
he gives no verdict on hearsay,
but judges the wretched with integrity,
and with equity gives a verdict for the poor of the land.

His word is a rod that strikes the ruthless,
his sentences bring death to the wicked.
Integrity is the loincloth round his waist,
faithfulness the belt about his hips.
The wolf lives with the lamb,
the panther lies down with the kid,
calf and lion cub feed together
with a little boy to lead them.
The cow and the bear make friends,
their young lie down together.
The lion eats straw like the ox.
The infant plays over the cobra's hole;
into the viper's lair
the young child puts his hand.
They do no hurt, no harm,
on all my holy mountain,
for the country is filled with the knowledge of the Lord
as the waters swell the sea.
That day, the root of Jesse shall stand as a signal to the peoples.
It will be sought out by the nations
and its home will be glorious.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 71:1-2. 7-8. 12-13. 17. R. cf. v.7

(R.) Justice shall flourish in his time, and fullness of peace for ever.

1. O God, give your judgement to the king,
to a king's son your justice,
that he may judge your people in justice
and your poor in right judgement. (R.)
2. In his days justice shall flourish and peace till the moon fails.
He shall rule from sea to sea,
from the Great River to the earth's bounds. (R.)
3. For he shall save the poor when they cry and the needy who are helpless.
He will have pity on the weak
and save the lives of the poor. (R.)
4. May his name be blessed for ever and endure like the sun.
Every tribe shall be blessed in him,
all nations bless his name. (R.)

Second Reading Rom 15:4-9

Christ, the hope of all people.

Everything that was written long ago in the scriptures was meant to teach us something about hope from the examples scripture gives of how people who did not give up were helped by God. And may he who helps us when we refuse to give up, help you all to be tolerant with each other, following the example of Christ Jesus, so that united in mind and voice you may give glory to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

It can only be to God's glory, then, for you to treat each other in the same friendly way as Christ treated you. The reason Christ became the servant of circumcised Jews was not only so that God could faithfully carry out the promises made to the patriarchs, it was also to get the pagans to give glory to God for his mercy, as scripture says in one place: For this I shall praise you among the pagans and sing your name.

Gospel Acclamation Lk 3:4, 6

Alleluia, alleluia!

Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths:

all people shall see the salvation of God.

Alleluia!

Gospel Mt 3:1-12

Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is close at hand.

In due course John the Baptist appeared; he preached in the wilderness of Judaea and this was his message: 'Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is close at hand.' This was the man the prophet Isaiah spoke of when he said:

A voice cries in the wilderness:
Prepare a way for the Lord,
make his paths straight.

This man John wore a garment made of camel-hair with a leather belt round his waist, and his food was locusts and wild honey. Then Jerusalem and all Judaea and the whole Jordan district made their way to him, and as they were baptised by him in the river Jordan they confessed their sins. But when he saw a number of Pharisees and Sadducees coming for baptism he said to them, 'Brood of vipers, who warned you to fly from the retribution that is coming? But if you are repentant, produce the appropriate fruit, and do not presume to tell yourselves, "We have Abraham for our father," because, I tell you, God can raise children for Abraham from these stones. Even now the axe is laid to the roots of the trees, so that any tree which fails to produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown on the fire. I baptise you in water for repentance, but the one who follows me is more powerful than I am, and I am not fit to carry his sandals; he will baptise you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing-fan is in his hand; he will clear his threshing-floor and gather his wheat into the barn; but the chaff he will burn in a fire that will never go out.'

Reflection by Fr Michael Tate

John proclaimed that the reign of God was 'at hand' as he immersed and plunged followers into the waters of the Jordan River. (His nickname was John the Immerser, or 'baptiser' in the Greek.) He used flowing water to symbolise the washing away of the past for those who repented so that they could be totally focused on the 'at hand' person who would inaugurate God's kingdom.

In this passage, John does not identify the 'Someone'! But he realised that this 'Someone' would have divine power to affect the future by immersing, baptising, his followers with the Holy Spirit and with fire.

At this stage of Advent, we should be like John's disciples, filled with a sense of anticipation, looking forward to the coming towards us ('Advent' in Latin) of the One who can flood our minds and bodies with the Holy Spirit and can immerse our hearts in Divine Fire.

We could pause for a moment to thank God that, even though we are unworthy to carry His sandals, there is One who is coming towards us wanting to transform us with Divine Power.

St Lucy was a young woman from a wealthy Sicilian family who lived during the early fourth century. It is believed that her mother arranged for her to be married, but Lucy refused as she wanted to devote her life to serving Christ. She offered prayers at the tomb of St Agatha and her mother's illness was miraculously cured. She was eventually martyred during the persecution of Emperor Diocletian, but even in the face of death she showed great courage and faith in God. The name Lucy means 'light' and St Lucy is called upon as the patron saint of the blind.
