The Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick.

Before the Second Vatican Council, the Anointing of the Sick was kept until the time when death was approaching. Research by scholars before the Council had shown that the sacrament was originally a sacrament for the sick rather than for the dying.

In our days the sacrament is used quite broadly. It can be used for individual sick people or it can also be used within Mass for a gathering of sick people either in a hospital, a Nursing Home, a Retirement Village or a hostel. It can also be a parish celebration with a larger number of people participating. Such communal celebrations have helped to change the mentality behind the sacrament. It becomes obvious in such celebrations that the sacrament is for the sick and not the dying. Parishes often comment on how effective these celebrations prove to be.

The Anointing is done on the head and the hands; the head being seen as symbolic of the person and the hands as symbolic of their actions.

Notice also that there is a double meaning to the words used in anointing the hands: "save you and raise you up". These words apply to the situation of illness that the Lord might save them and raise them out of their illness. These words echo words of the healings of Jesus in the gospels: in Mark 1.31 when Jesus is healing Simon's mother-in-law, the gospel says: "He went to her, took her by the hand and raised her up." And in Mark 5.41-3, at the healing of Jairus' daughter, the gospel has: "Little girl, I tell you to get up. And at once the little girl got up".

The same words also refer to our ultimate healing in the salvation of the resurrection which Jesus has won for us and gives to us. If the person desires confession that is done in place of the Penitential Rite, and if there is to be Holy Communion that takes place after the Lord's Prayer.

The oil that is used is normally blessed by the Archbishop at the Mass of the Oils in Holy Week. But if this is not available, for some reason, the priest can bless oil in place of praying over the blessed oil.

Anointing of the Sick can be repeated during a longer illness or in successive illnesses and can be made available to those who desire it on a regular basis. Many parishes have communal celebrations before Easter and Christmas and some on a more regular basis.

This Sacrament of the Sick is a beautiful celebration of the Lord's healing and saving presence among us. Its strongest scriptural reference is in the Letter of St James where we read: "Are there any who are sick among you? Let them send for the priests of the Church, and let the priests pray over them, anointing them with oil in the name of the Lord; and the prayer of faith will save the sick persons, and the Lord will raise them up; and if they have committed any sins, their sins will be forgiven them" (James 5.14-16).

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, Year C

First Reading 2 Sm 5:1-3

They anointed David king of Israel.

All the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron. 'Look' they said 'we are your own flesh and blood. In days past when Saul was our king, it was you who led Israel in all their exploits; and the Lord said to you, "You are the man who shall be shepherd of my people Israel, you shall be the leader of Israel."' So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and King David made a pact with them at Hebron in the presence of the Lord, and they anointed David king of Israel.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 121:1-5. R. see v.2

(R.) Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.

1. I rejoiced when I heard them say:
'Let us go to God's house.'
And now our feet are standing within your gates, O Jerusalem. (R.)
2. Jerusalem is built as a city strongly compact.
It is there that the tribes go up,
the tribes of the Lord. (R.)
3. For Israel's law it is, there to praise the Lord's name.
There were set the thrones of judgement
of the house of David. (R.)

Second Reading Col 1:12-20

He has taken us into the kingdom of his beloved Son.

We give thanks to the Father who has made it possible for you to join the saints and with them to inherit the light.

Because that is what he has done: he has taken us out of the power of darkness and created a place for us in the kingdom of the Son that he loves, and in him, we gain our freedom, the forgiveness of our sins.

He is the image of the unseen God and the first-born of all creation,
for in him were created
all things in heaven and on earth:
everything visible and everything
invisible,

Thrones, Dominations, Sovereignities, Powers –

all things were created through him and
for him.

Before anything was created, he existed,
and he holds all things in unity.
Now the Church is his body,
he is its head.
As he is the Beginning,
he was first to be born from the dead,
so that he should be first in every way;
because God wanted all perfection
to be found in him
and all things to be reconciled through him and for him,
everything in heaven and everything on earth,
when he made peace
by his death on the cross.

Gospel Acclamation Mk 11:9. 10

Alleluia, alleluia!

Blessed is he who inherits the kingdom of David our Father;
blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Alleluia!

Gospel Lk 23:35-43

Lord remember me when you come into your kingdom.

The people stayed there before the cross watching Jesus. As for the leaders, they jeered at him. 'He saved others,' they said, 'let him save himself if he is the Christ of God, the Chosen One.' The soldiers mocked him too, and when they approached to offer him vinegar they said, 'If you are the king of the Jews, save yourself.' Above him there was an inscription: 'This is the King of the Jews.'

One of the criminals hanging there abused him. 'Are you not the Christ?' he said. 'Save yourself and us as well.' But the other spoke up and rebuked him. 'Have you no fear of God at all?' he said. 'You got the same sentence as he did, but in our case we deserved it: we are paying for what we did. But this man has done nothing wrong. Jesus,' he said, 'remember me when you come into your kingdom.' 'Indeed, I promise you,' he replied, 'today you will be with me in paradise.'

Reflection by Fr Michael Tate

If you memorise a tune or your 'times tables', you are said to 'know it by heart'. The sort of person who will always remember me is someone who 'knows me by heart'.

Here, a tortured criminal starts his plea: 'Jesus . . .'. This is one of only two instances where Jesus is addressed by his name which means 'The Lord saves'. The good thief went on: 'remember me when you come into Your Kingdom'. Jesus 'knows him by heart' and promises that He will re-member him in Paradise.

This is an exercise of sovereignty which befits 'Christ the King'. This is all the Kingly power which you or I will ever need, but to confidently invoke it we need to position ourselves alongside Jesus, like the 'good thief'. We do this by our practical concern for the poor and by coming to Mass which re-members the Body of Christ.

We could pause for a moment to pray: 'Jesus, remember me, know me by heart, for when you do I will be in Paradise.'

Pope Clement I was a leading member of the church in Rome towards the end of the 1st century. He was one of the very first bishops of Rome – some lists name him as second in line to St Peter, while others claim he was third or fourth in line. Although little is known about Clement's life, the early Christian writer, Tertullian, wrote that Clement was consecrated by St Peter himself. His letter to the church at Corinth is one of the oldest Christian documents to be written since the New Testament. Tradition suggests that Clement was imprisoned by the Roman Emperor Trajan, during which time he led ministry amongst his fellow prisoners. He was later executed by being tied to an anchor and thrown into the sea.
