Dear Parents,

At the conclusion of 2023, Mrs. Deb Myers will retire from teaching. Mrs. Deb Myers has had a remarkable and fulfilling career as a teacher at Our Lady of the Way, dedicating 28 years to shaping the education and lives of many students. Many students Deb taught over the years have returned to OLW with their children that Deb has taught. Her commitment to helping students learn to read, write, spell, maths, critically think, and be creative has undoubtedly left a lasting impact on the school community. Not only has Mrs. Myers shaped the lives of her students, she also ensured she mentored and supported all teachers that worked at Our Lady of the Way. This is the dedication shown by Deb to always improve herself as a teacher and the teachers she worked with.

Retirement is a well-deserved time for Mrs. Myers to step back and enjoy the fruits of her labour. It's heart-warming to know that she will be able to spend more time with her grandchildren and savour the moments that come with this new chapter in her life.

While it's sad to see her leave, her legacy will undoubtedly live on through the countless students she has influenced over the years. The school community and all those who have had the privilege of being taught by Mrs. Myers will likely remember her with gratitude and fondness.

Mrs. Myers will conclude our Christmas Carols with the choir singing displaying the many talents of Deb. Our choir has been a wonderful addition to our school and it will be wonderful as a community to farewell Deb doing what she loves. This will be an opportunity for students, colleagues, and parents to express their appreciation and share their best wishes for Mrs. Myers in her well-deserved retirement.

Thank you Deb for being a good friend and mentor to us as a staff. The OLW community will miss you. Enjoy your retirement.

happy retirement

SIZE GUIDE

BODY MEASUREMENT TIPS

- When measuring yourself keep the tape firm but not tight
- Measure over undergarments for more accurate measurements
- If you don't have a measuring tape, use a piece of string and measure it using a ruler

CHEST

Measure around the fullest part of your chest. This is the key measurement for shirts/blouses & dresses. Make sure the measuring tape sits horizontally across your body.

WAIST

Measure around the natural waistline which is the narrowest part of your waist. This is an important measurement for trousers/pants/shorts & skirts

HIP

Measure around the fullest part of the hips

- Our Size Charts are in Finished Garment Measurements.
- Size Charts are located on each individual garment on the website, under the SIZE CHART tab.
- To determine the size you need to ADD to your Body Measurements the following:
- BLAZERS, DRESSES, TUNICS, SHIRTS, BLOUSES, POLOS and other upper body garments ADD 10 - 12 cm
- TROUSERS, SHORTS, SKIRTS & TUNICS - ADD 5 - 8 cm in the waist. These garments are often adjustable in the waist to allow for extra growth.
- A good way to check is to measure & compare a similar garment that is a comfortable fit.

The Living Word

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, Year A

26 November 2023

First Reading Ez 34:11-12,15-17

You, my flock, I judge between sheep and sheep.

The Lord says this: I am going to look after my flock myself and keep all of it in view. As a shepherd keeps all his flock in view when he stands up in the middle of his scattered sheep, so shall I keep my sheep in view. I shall rescue them from wherever they have been scattered during the mist and darkness. I myself will pasture my sheep, I myself will show them where to rest – it is the Lord who speaks. I shall look for the lost one, bring back the stray, bandage the wounded and make the weak strong. I shall watch over the fat and healthy. I shall be a true shepherd to them.

As for you, my sheep, the Lord says this: I will judge between sheep and sheep, between rams and he-goats.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 22:1-3. 5-6. R. v.1

(R.) The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.

1. The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.
Fresh and green are the pastures
where he gives me repose. (R.)
2. Near restful waters he leads me,
to revive my drooping spirit.
He guides me along the right path;
he is true to his name. (R.)
3. You have prepared a banquet for me in the sight of my foes.
My head you have anointed with oil;
my cup is overflowing. (R.)
4. Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me
all the days of my life.
In the Lord's own house shall I dwell
for ever and ever. (R.)

Second Reading 1 Cor 15:20-26,28

He will hand over the kingdom to God the Father, so that God may be all in all.

Christ has been raised from the dead, the first-fruits of all who have fallen asleep. Death came through one man and in the same way the resurrection of the dead has come through one man. Just as all men die in Adam, so all men will be brought to life in Christ; but all of them in their proper order: Christ as the first-fruits and then, after the coming of Christ, those who belong to him. After that will come the end, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father, having done away with every sovereignty, authority and power. For he must be king until he has put all his enemies under his feet and the last of the enemies to be destroyed is death. And when everything is subjected to him, then the Son himself will be subject in his turn to the One who subjected all things to him, so that God may be all in all.

Gospel Acclamation Mk 11:9-10

Alleluia, alleluia!

Blessings on him who comes in the name of the Lord!

Blessings on the coming kingdom
of our father David!

Alleluia!

Gospel Mt 25:31-46

He will take his seat on his throne of glory, and he will separate men one from another.

Jesus said to his disciples: 'When the Son of Man comes in his glory, escorted by all the angels, then he will take his seat on his throne of glory. All the nations will be assembled before him and he will separate men one from another as the shepherd separates sheep from goats. He will place the sheep on his right hand and the goats on his left. Then the King will say to those on his right hand, "Come, you whom my Father has blessed, take for your heritage the kingdom prepared for you since the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food; I was thirsty and you gave me drink; I was a stranger and you made me welcome; naked and you clothed me, sick and you visited me, in prison and you came to see me." Then the virtuous will say to him in reply, "Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you; or thirsty and give you drink? When did we see you a stranger and make you welcome; naked and clothe you; sick or in prison and go to see you?" And the King will answer, "I tell you solemnly, in so far as you did this to one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did it to me." Next he will say to those on his left hand, "Go away from me, with your curse upon you, to the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. For I was hungry and you never gave me food; I was thirsty and you never gave me anything to drink; I was a stranger and you never made me welcome, naked and you never clothed me, sick and in prison and you never visited me." Then it will be their turn to ask, "Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty, a stranger or naked, sick or in prison, and did not come to your help?" Then he will answer, "I tell you solemnly, in so far as you neglected to do this to one of the least of these, you neglected to do it to me." And they will go away to eternal punishment, and the virtuous to eternal life.'

Reflection by Fr Michael Tate

The eternal destiny of every human being of a certain maturity is determined by decisions made in relation to food and drink for the famished, clothing and housing for those without decent clothing or shelter, visiting those in circumstances which cut them off from life-giving contact with others (the sick and prisoners).

Those who provide such assistance, in the words of Pope Francis, touch the wounds of Christ! A Christian can be fully conscious of this, but for non Christians it is possible to do so without any of our awareness or belief. Christ is completely incognito to them: 'When did we ever see you hungry and feed you ...?'

We know the doctrine of the Real Presence in the poor and marginalised. Woe betide those of us who ignore this fact of faith. We are on the way to a Hellish state of existence. That is equally possible for those who do not share our faith, but who ignore the plight of the marginalised and continue in a self-absorbed way.

We could pause for a moment to pray that we, and many billions of non-Christians, may hear the invitation: 'Come you blessed of my Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.'

St Andrew came from Capernaum and was a fisherman by trade. He was a disciple of John the Baptist before he and his brother, Simon Peter, were called to be the first apostles of Christ. In the Gospels he is mentioned for his part in the feeding of the 5000, as well as John's Gospel account of the Greeks who wished to meet Jesus. There is uncertainty as to where he preached, where he died and was buried. Ancient writings suggest he went to Greece, and was eventually crucified on a saltire (X shaped) cross, from where he preached to the people for two days before dying. A medieval legend tells of his remains being taken to the coast of Scotland to a place now named St Andrews, which eventually led to him becoming the patron saint of Scotland.
