Dear Parents & Families,

BULLYING NO WAY - NATIONAL WEEK OF ACTION

The theme for 2024 is 'Everyone belongs'.

When we all feel like we belong, bullying struggles to find a place. It is about embracing who we are, respecting everyone's differences, and standing up together against unkindness.

Belonging means we all have a role in preventing bullying. We are encouraged to speak up and create a safe place where everyone feels supported and respected and our voices are heard and valued.

As part of this week, we are hosting a NEDS Growth Mindset Incursion for the whole school. Students will discover how to activate their growth mindset to overcome social, emotional and academic challenges with three key messages:

Never give up – understand the power of yet
Encourage others – spark courage in people
Do your best – always be learning and growing

Part of the show uses yo-yo which can be a mindset tool and tangible reminder of NED's message. Students can purchase their own yo-yo on the attached order form if they wish to use this as a tool to support their resilience and development.

We also invite students to wear a 'touch of orange' on Friday, August 16, as part of the campaign. Our SRC will provide more information about this throughout the week.

FIRST EUCHARIST

A Parent – Child session for the Sacrament will be held this Tuesday, August 13 at 5.00pm.

The Sacrament will be celebrated on Sunday, September 8, at 1.00pm.

FEAST OF THE ASSUMPTION

This Thursday, August 15, is the Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Mary. This is a Holy Day of Obligation, which means that the whole school will attend Mass at 10:30am. All families are welcome to join us at Mass.

SCHOOL ADVISORY COUNCIL

The School Advisory Council currently has the opportunity to increase the size of the advisory group by up to two additional members. If you are interested in applying, please read the abbreviated information below or head to our website for further information.

The School Advisory Council provides a forum for discussion and discernment, where parent voice and community perspective are available to inform and support the decisions made by the principal and parish priest as the custodian of mission for the good of school and parish, where students' wellbeing and outcomes are paramount.

It is important that School Advisory Council members understand that their primary role is to provide assistance and advice on school matters to support the principal in their leadership role.

School Advisory Councils do not have a legal identity and do not become involved in the day-to-day management of the school. The School Advisory Council must act within the parameters of this Terms of Reference. The MACS board, as the governing body of MACS schools, is responsible for the common good of Catholic education in MACS schools in the Archdiocese.

The following is a list of some of the key qualities and skills for members of the School Advisory Council:

- commitment to the MACS Statement of Mission
- commitment to Catholic education in the parish and school
- commitment to the vision and mission of the parish and school
- understanding of the role of parish priest as the custodian of mission, principal as the leader of the school and council members
- willingness to ask questions and seek clarification
- ability to think strategically
- willingness to support the contributions of other council members
- capacity to listen in an active and meaningful way
- willingness to work cooperatively with others
- commitment to maintaining confidentiality at all times

The OLV School Advisory Council currently meets six times during the year and may call extraordinary meetings if required.

Expressions of interest to become a council member are to be made in writing and forwarded to the Principal. Anyone interested in becoming a member of the Our Lady of the Way Kingsbury School Advisory Council may seek advice from the principal, chair or parish priest on the process of appointment. Consideration will also be given to succession planning through staggered renewal of members to ensure continuing institutional memory.

Applications close Wednesday, August 28, at 4.00pm.

TERM 3 SCHOOL CLOSURE DAYS

OLW will be holding two Closure Days in Term 3. The first Closure Day will be on Monday August 26 which will be a professional development day focussing on improving educational outcomes and building our understandings in Religious Education.

The second Closure Day will be held on Monday September 16. This day is the last Monday of Term 3 and is for Parent-Teacher Interviews. Interview booking details will be released closer to the date.

P & F NEWS

Our P & F's Spare Coin Challenge concludes this Friday. Students are invited to bring along any spare change that they or their parents collect to add to their class jar. Next Monday we will announce our winning class who will receive a free hot chip lunch!

The next P & F Meeting is this Thursday at 9.10am in the staffroom.

FATHER'S DAY STALL & BREAKFAST

All dads are warmly invited to our Father's Day Breakfast to be held on Friday, August 30, commencing at 8.00am. Invitations were sent out last week.

Our P & F will also be holding a Father's Day Stall on Thursday August 29, giving students the opportunity to buy a gift for their dad or granddad. Gifts range from $2.00 - $10.00.

BOB STEWART UNIFORMS

Last week I met with representatives from Bob Stewart to discuss and refine our current uniform requirements. As a result of these discussions, from this point on you will notice a slight darkening in the navy colour of our uniform. This slight change to a more readily available Australian made product will result in a cost saving for a number of items on the uniform list.

We have also changed the material for the shorts and included zippered pockets, and slightly modified the rugby style jumper and the lining of the hoodie to better align with the rest of the uniform. The sun hat has also changed material to hold a better shape and offer better protection. These changes will result in a transition period for the navy colour, but won't affect the overall look of our uniform and will be more cost effective for families.

YEAR 7 2026 APPLICATIONS

Applications for Year 7 at Catholic Secondary Schools in 2026 close this Friday August 16, so please ensure that you meet this timeline for applying, as there will be more applicants than spaces available at the secondary colleges.

Enjoy the week!

Statement from Archbishop Peter A Comensoli on prayer in Parliament

It is pleasing that both major political parties in Victoria are now agreed on retaining the practice of reciting the Lord's Prayer in the Victorian Parliament each sitting day. This is a great outcome, which shows the value of people of faith standing up respectfully and being heard. Following the letter to parliamentarians that I signed together with religious leaders of various faiths in May, nearly 11,000 people from communities across Victoria signed a petition calling on Parliament not to remove the Lord's Prayer. Many others also wrote letters and emails to their local members of Parliament sharing their support. It was clear from the debate that the message about the importance of the Lord's Prayer and its value to the community was heard loud and clear.

Archbishop's Campaign

In 2024, the Archdiocesan Development Office is introducing a streamlined approach to fundraising. This approach, called the Archbishop's Campaign, is a single annual campaign and will reduce the number of separate special Sunday plate collections in parishes each year. The focus of the 2024 campaign is support for the formation of new priests and for the care of retired priests—those who have served the community of faith in the past and those who will do so in the future.

- Tax-deductible donations go to the Archbishop's Charitable Fund, which supports Corpus Christi College Building Fund, Priests Retirement Foundation, John Pierce Centre, Melbourne Overseas Mission, University of Divinity Building Fund and other deductible gift recipient entities such as Catholic community agencies and service organisations.
- Non-deductible donations go to Catholic Archdiocese of Melbourne Religious Projects Fund, which supports seminarian formation and evangelisation initiatives such as World Youth Day. Any unallocated and loose collections will go to Catholic Archdiocese of Melbourne Religious Projects Fund. When will it happen? The Archbishop's Campaign will run over three weekends each August. Officially announced to parishioners across the Archdiocese on 10 and 11 August.
- On 17 and 18 August, churchgoing Catholics will be asked during weekend Masses to make a donation through provided envelopes either as a once off or by monthly contributions or by simple donation to the Archbishop's Campaign. On the third weekend, 24 and 25 August, parishioners will be reminded to finalise their contributions. Brochures available in the Foyer.

The Living Word

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year B

11 August 2024

First Reading 1 Kgs 19:4-8

Strengthened by the food, he walked to the mountain of the Lord.

Elijah went into the wilderness, a day's journey, and sitting under a furze bush wished he were dead. 'Lord', he said 'I have had enough. Take my life: I am no better than my ancestors.' Then he lay down and went to sleep. But an angel touched him and said, 'Get up and eat.' He looked round, and there at his head was a scone baked on hot stones, and a jar of water. He ate and drank and then lay down again. But the angel of the Lord came back a second time and touched him and said, 'Get up and eat, or the journey will be too long for you.' So he got up and ate and drank, and strengthened by that food he walked for forty days and forty nights until he reached Horeb, the mountain of God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 33:2-9. R. v.9

(R.) Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

1. I will bless the Lord at all times,
his praise always on my lips;
in the Lord my soul shall make its boast.
The humble shall hear and be glad. (R.)
2. Glorify the Lord with me.
Together let us praise his name.
I sought the Lord and he answered me;
from all his terrors he set me free. (R.)
3. Look towards him and be radiant;
let your faces not be abashed.
This poor man called; the Lord heard him
and rescued him from all his distress.
(R.)
4. The angel of the Lord is encamped around those who revere him, to rescue them.
Taste and see that the Lord is good.
He is happy who seeks refuge in him.
(R.)

Second Reading Eph 4:30-5:2

Walk in love, just as Christ.

Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God who has marked you with his seal for you to be set free when the day comes. Never have grudges against others, or lose your temper, or raise your voice to anybody, or call each other names, or allow any sort of spitefulness. Be friends with one another, and kind, forgiving each other as readily as God forgave you in Christ.

Try, then, to imitate God, as children of his that he loves, and follow Christ by loving as he loved you, giving himself up in our place as a fragrant offering and a sacrifice to God.

Gospel Acclamation Jn 6:51

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the living bread from heaven, says the Lord;

whoever eats this bread will live for ever.

Alleluia!

Gospel Jn 6:41-51

I am the living bread come down from heaven.

The Jews were complaining to each other about Jesus, because he had said, 'I am the bread that came down from heaven.' 'Surely this is Jesus son of Joseph' they said. 'We know his father and mother. How can he now say, "I have come down from heaven"?' Jesus said in reply, 'Stop complaining to each other.

'No one can come to me unless he is drawn by the Father who sent me,
and I will raise him up at the last day.
It is written in the prophets:
They will all be taught by God,
and to hear the teaching of the Father,
and learn from it,
is to come to me.

Not that anybody has seen the Father,
except the one who comes from God:
he has seen the Father.
I tell you most solemnly,
everybody who believes has eternal life.
I am the bread of life.

Your fathers ate the manna in the desert
and they are dead;
but this is the bread that comes down
from heaven,
so that a man may eat it and not die.
I am the living bread which has come down from heaven.

Anyone who eats this bread will live for ever;
and the bread that I shall give is my flesh, for the life of the world.'

Reflection by Fr Michael Tate

Your mother and my mother, carrying her baby in the womb for nine months, effectively said: 'Take, eat, this is my body.' A mother able to breastfeed continues this communion as she offers her body to give life to her child.

Our Lord Jesus Christ adopts maternal language to express his deepest desire for us! He gives us his risen and glorified Humanity: 'Take, eat, this is my body', and a sort of life-giving mutual indwelling occurs: 'Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood abide in me and I in them.' This is as intimate as a baby dwelling in the womb of its mother. As St Paul put it in a different context, 'In Him we live and move and have our being.'

The Saviour of the World, the Conqueror of Death, dwells in my body and I dwell in his glorified body. This gives us 'eternal life' which is not something which begins after death, but is simply a label for Our Lord's Divinehuman life which we can share right now. However, because it is the life of the Conqueror of Death it will certainly impel us beyond the grave: 'The one who eats this bread will live forever.'

We could take a moment to pray to more fervently realise and take advantage of the fact that, at every Mass, we can respond to the invitation to come forward to Holy Communion so as to be enwombed in the maternal Christ.

St Clare of Assisi was born in Italy in 1194 AD to a wealthy noble family. As a child she was devoted to prayer and at the age of eighteen she heard St Francis of Assisi preach and she was inspired to follow his example, despite the protestations of her family. After living a life of strict poverty with the Benedictine nuns, she eventually led a new order known as the "Poor Ladies of San Damiano". For a time the order was directed by St Francis himself, and Clare cared for him in his final days. In 1224 the Prussian King, Frederick II led an army to take the town of Assisi. It is believed that Clare faced the army carrying only the Blessed Sacrament, and that suddenly the army was overcome with fear and fled. Ten years after her death in 1253, her order became known as the Order of St Clare. In 1958 Pope Pius XII named Clare as the patron saint of television based on the story that when she was sick and unable to attend mass she could reportedly see and hear it on the wall of her room.

KINGSBURY THEIRCARE

WEEK 4 - 'SCIENCE WEEK'

We have had an amazing week learning about science through play based learning and completing some amazing science experiments and activities!

We spent so much time outside this week, getting our hands dirty and trying new things in science, learning new ideas and putting them into practice!

ACTIVITIES

- Magic floating drawings - in this activity we learnt that whiteboard markers have a special property, allowing us to take our drawings for a swim! We drew images onto the backs of spoons, and dipped them into water to let them float! Although this didn't work as well as we thought, we practiced resilience through this experiment and realised that sometimes, things don't go to plan and we can keep trying until it works!
- Oil and water dip painting - We loved learning about how oil and water do not mix, and seeing the effects of that theory through beautiful dip paintings! We swirled paint in our water and oil mixture, and dipped our paper in to create an amazing design, it was awesome!
- Badminton - we spoke about gravity before playing this incredible sport, and we learnt about how the weight of the shuttlecock helps it stay the right way up, helping us hit it the right way! We had a lot of fun playing outside and practicing our gross motor skills, as well as resilience, teamwork and effective communication, it was great!

URGENT NOTICE

Bookings are increasing and we are doing our best to staff according to the numbers each day, and late bookings can make it difficult to stay in our ratio of 1:15!

Booking in advance helps us out, so when possible, please book as early as you can so we can prepare and staff accordingly!

FEEDBACK!

We would love to hear what you think of our program!
